What Comes After War in Vietnam

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — What after Vietnam?

The United States suffered anguish over the Korean war, with its cost in lives, money and even prestige badly dappled after the Chinese victory at the Yalu River.

After that it seemed unthinkable this country would get involved in another Asian war any time soon. But within less than 10 years it was starting down the same road in Vietnam.

Now there is so much anguish, handwringing and argument over this war that almost no public figure is talking about the part of the United States will play, if any, when this conflict is over and new Vietnams occur.

There is one reasonable explanation for that. The men involved in the intense dispute over the rightness and wrongness of this war have little time for thinking about the next one.

But, since the future is coming and the Vietnamese war will be over some day, there will inevitably be a whole new argument, no doubt intense, about whether this country should ever get similarly embroiled.

And out of the distaste for foreign entanglements will surely come a new yearning for a return to American isolationism.

The Communist world, even though split, would take such action as an invitation to adventure if it believes the United States will not aid a nation, particularly a backward one, which is imperiled by Red aggression or subversion.

And that would mean all the effort which went into Vietnam to stop the spread of Communism will have been wasted. Yet, the United States can't afford to be at war, big or little, endlessly.

Therefore, new plans and new policies about the American role in the world will have to emerge when the Vietnamese war is over to avoid American involvement in new wars and yet discourage and prevent new Red aggressions.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in the autumn

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

edition of the magazine Foreign Affairs Quarterly, has tried his hand at thinking about the coming problems.

He foresees after Vietnam a great American reluctance to leap in to stop an attempted Communist takeover in Asia, Africa or Latin America, even if asked to by a besieged nation. He doesn't rule out the possibility this country would do what it has done in Vietnam but suggests that in the future the American role as world policeman will be limited.

Nixon suggests that in the future nations within a certain area must band together in a collective effort to stop Red aggression and then, only if their effort fails, will they be able to call on the United States for aid.

Roughly, that's what he says. But he acknowledges the uncertainties of trying to see into the Asian future until Red China changes. The world cannot be safe until it does change, he says.

Yet, any speculation now about America's willingness or unwillingness to take on new wars may be useless since there is a double uncertainty about Red China.

In the first place, it is developing nuclear weapons. Soon it should be well supplied with them and with the missiles to deliver them.

Miniskirts Helped Lottery Sales

NEW YORK (AP) — To the surprise of hardly anyone, salesgirls in miniskirts proved to be quite a tonic for the lagging New York State Lottery sales.

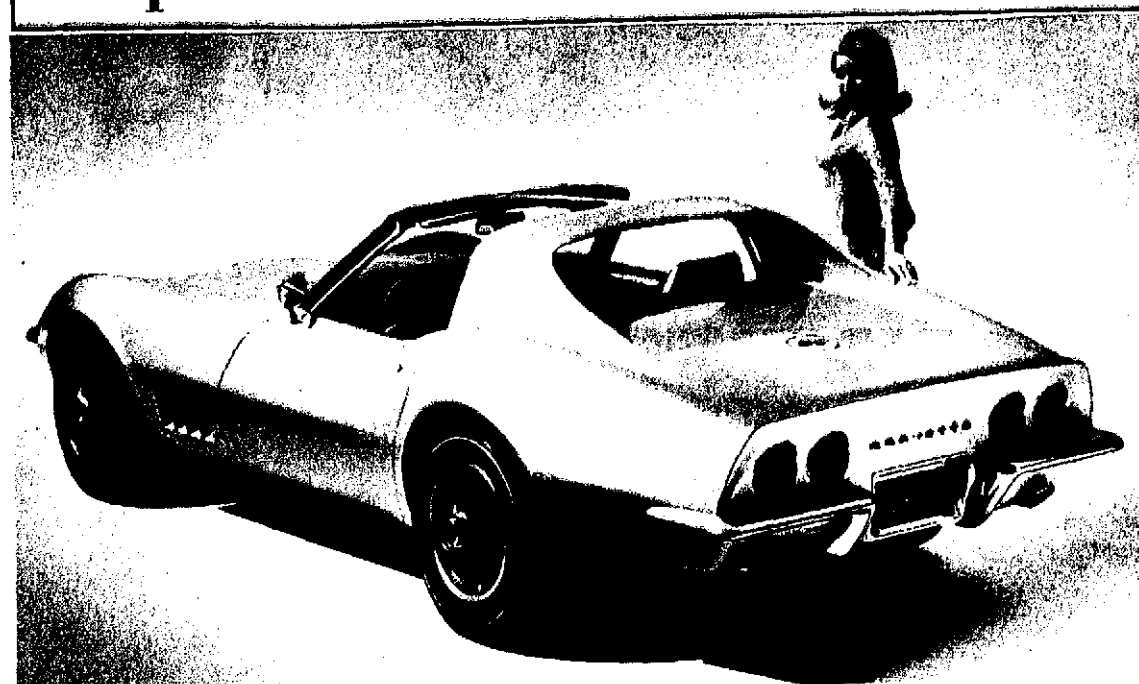

"This is the first time I've bought one," said Edward Christman, "and the only reason I did it is because they're here and I'm here."

The state hired 20 young women in yellow miniskirts and blue stockings to hand out promotional material while 10 busy salesmen handled the tickets.

The entourage made nine stops throughout the city and everywhere they went people quickly lined up to buy the tickets. Lottery proceeds go to education.

'68s Top Secrets are here

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE

And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE

There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION

There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vents on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. This way, you can leave your windows rolled up and add still more to your peace and quiet.

PROVED SAFETY FEATURES

You get the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, plus many more new features. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, and safety armrests that shield the door handles.

MUCH MORE THAT'S NEW

There are new roof lines, some formal and graceful, others sporty and quick. There are new instrument panels, richly designed and all controls within easy reach. There are new interiors, new vinyls, new fabrics, new colors. There are models with Hide-A-Way windshield wipers and headlamps that disappear behind grilles. There are new side marker lamps, new recessed taillights. There's even a new ignition alarm buzzer that reminds you not to walk away and leave your keys in the car.

These are the newest, the most different, the most dramatically changed Chevrolets ever. And they're at your Chevrolet dealer's now. You'll thoroughly enjoy slipping behind the wheel, experiencing the smooth new handling and library-quiet ride and, more than anything, seeing and feeling the even greater quality built into every new Chevrolet for 1968.

Be smart! Be sure! Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

There's more quality and value built into Chevrolets than ever before, making every new 1968 model an even better buy!

HELEN HELP US!

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

DON'T SKIRT THE PROBLEM

Dear Helen: About mini-skirts, I agree with whoever said it first: "A girl's knee is a joint, not an entertainment." But I get pretty burned at fashion designers who succeed in swaying us to short skirts, only to announce they'll go long again—and there we are, stuck with clothes we can't wear! I held out against above-the-knee styles until this year, when I finally cut off the excess on my skirts. I might have known this would bring about a change, for I did the same with pointy-toed shoes. Just when I swung over, they died!

I'm the kind of person who is never in style until it's too late. In fact, the minute my friends see me in a "new" look, they know it's doomed and stop buying. Any Suggestions?—NEITHER A PUSHOVER NOR A HOLDOUT

Dear Helen: My only suggestion is one that few women have nerve enough to take: Choose the style which suits you best, adapt it somewhat to present fashion, and forget what "Paris"—or whoever—decrees.

The older you are, the easier

BOARDING HOUSE reach won this little porker first chance at a snack held by a little girl at Deer Ranch in Mississippi City, Miss., where youngsters can buy a nipped bottle just for the chance of seeing a little ham make a pig of himself.

it will be to take my advice.—H.

Dear Helen: My husband likes all the noisy foods—celery, raw carrots, he even crunches on potato chips in bed while he's reading.

When we're out, he munches on the ice from his drink. He goes for peanut brittle. To make matters worse, he doesn't eat with his lips closed. And he's always "pleeing."

I know I shouldn't let this bother me, and I wouldn't tell him for worlds, but how can I adjust?—NEWLYWED

Dear Newlywed: If you can't tell him, join him. Maybe your husband will close "the noisiest lips in the world" when he hears how they sound. ...Or you might play back a tape recording of his munch-music.

However, I think newlyweds make their biggest mistake when they don't air small irritations early. If you're tactfully frank about the things that bother you, most mates will make an effort to change.—H.

Dear Helen:

Kay Mack, who regretted that fear of robbery or vandalism kept churches locked when not in use, expressed my sentiments perfectly—and much more beautifully than I could. I find it difficult to share my life with God the way I did years ago. When I was supremely happy I would stop by the church and tell Him so and thank Him. If I had a problem, He seemed nearer when I knelt in a quiet church. Where can we go these days when we need a few quiet moments with God, and find instead a locked door? I remember, though, it isn't God, but man, who locked the door.—WISHING.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble, or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1967, Inc.

Episcopal Leader Gets Backing

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

SEATTLE (AP) — A swelling lineup of religious leaders across the nation today backed an Episcopal leader's appeal that all faiths divert money to Negro-led groups working to improve the lot of their race.

Messages of support poured in from various Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish officials.

Hailing the plan, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of the National Council of Churches, said the interdenominational organization favored reallocation of Church funds to help "victims of discrimination" win justice.

The president of the American Jewish Committee, Morris B. Abrams of New York, said it also stood behind the call for "a major cooperative undertaking" to aid the poor in their struggle for "basic human rights."

Catholic Bishop James P. Shannon of St. Paul-Minneapolis sent his endorsement of the plan "for broader ecumenical response" to the crisis in slums of American cities.

The reaction came in response to a plea by Episcopal Presiding Bishop John E. Hines for a "full-scale mobilization" of religious resources to underwrite efforts of Negro community-action groups.

To start the process, his own Church's governing convention here is considering a proposal for shifting $3 million annually from usual church programs to back urban projects for Negroes.

Meanwhile, bishops Monday swept aside objections to the seating of a nonconformist colleague, the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike.

The action "showed a progressive openness on the part of the bishops," said Bishop Ivo I. Curtis of Seattle.

It also gave a possible clue to the mood of the Church in acting on a pending document that would strongly uphold freedom of doctrinal inquiry, and call for changes in canons virtually blocking heresy trials.

Bishop Pike was named last year in a heresy case, now bogged down in complications.

As the bicameral governing congress for 3.5 million Episcopalians went into its second working day, the lay-clergy House of Deputies took up another liberalizing measure—to allow the seating of women.

Predicting approval of the measure, which has been argued at conventions for a quarter century, Mrs. Seaton G. Bailey, of Griffin, Ga., president of Episcopal Church Women, said:

If the deputies do not vote to seat women this time, they will not be representing the sentiment of their dioceses."

Most of the Church's 89 U.S. dioceses have opened their conventions to women.

The seating of Bishop Pike Monday by a vote of 84 to 30 in the House of Bishops, followed a flurry of debate.

School Plagued by Bomb Scares

PASCO, Wash. (AP) — An unidentified girl's voice telephoned that a bomb had been placed somewhere in Isaac Stevens Junior High School Monday morning. The building was evacuated quickly and the students sent home.

A similar call—this time from a boy—forced speedy evacuation of Pasco High School less than an hour later.

It was the fourth bomb scare in Pasco schools within a week. No bombs were found.

Instead of dismissing the high school students, School Supt. Louis J. Ferrari had them assemble in the school's outdoor stadium for a lecture.

"We're not going to tolerate this," he said.

Thurs. Fri. & Sat. at the Saenger we have suspense and action with Audie Murphy and George Sanders in "Trunk to Cairo" plus the second feature, "The Hired Killer."

For the Late Show Sat., and Sunday-Monday it's a wild one ... "Devil's Angels" ... lots of exciting modern drama of motorcycle outlaws. We recommend this for the Mature Audiences.

"Shaggy Dog" & "Absent Minded Professor" will come to the Dixie next week and "Snow White and 7 Dwarfs" will be at the Saenger soon.

Fred, the Plant, Needs New Home

MAIDSTONE, England (AP) — Fred, the plant, needs a new home.

Fred lives in a small yard behind Ruby Martin's cafe in Maidstone. Mrs. Martin's problem is that Fred is a 9-foot monster—and still growing.

He appears to be a cross between a dahlia and a tomato plant. Fred erupted from a seedbox two months ago. Said Mrs. Martin: "When I bought the seeds I asked for something small to fit in seed boxes, but then Fred started growing. It was a joke at first. But now he takes up so much water that the other flowers are dying. He will just have to go."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Thomas' weekly anthology series had its first "book show" Monday night, a slight derivative comedy that missed the mark on most counts, including the production of laughter.

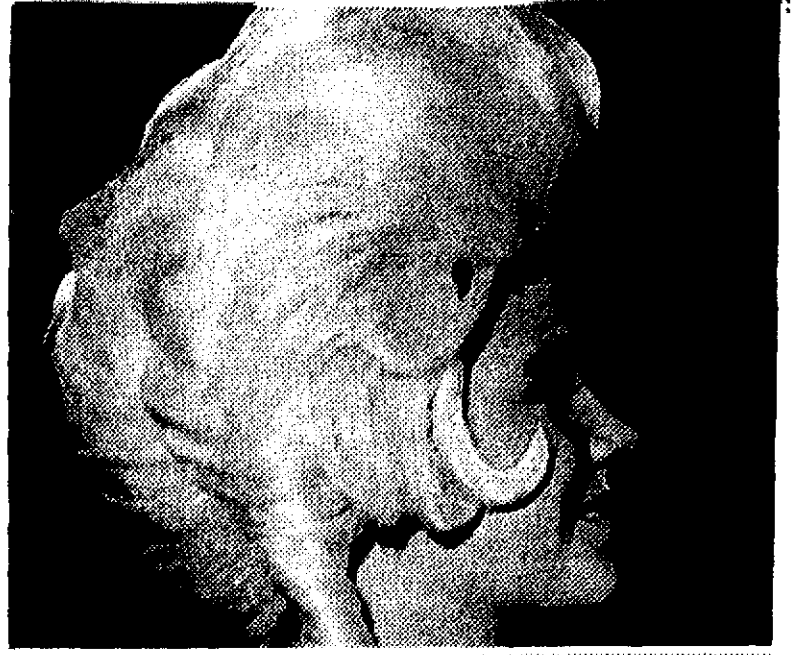

It's inspiration was obviously Damon Runyon's work, but the NBC hour was arch when it should have been robust, self-consciously cute when it should have been outrageously funny.

Thomas was not convincing playing a compulsive gambler with a tip on a long shot at a time when his pregnant wife drags from him a promise never to gamble after the birth of their child.

There was a complicated plot about borrowing a diamond under false pretenses and hocking it to place bets on the horse.

The hour was sandwiched between two returning adventure series on the network, "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." and "I Spy" were both, by coincidence, involved with Greeks.

The brave U.N.C.L.E. agents—Robert Vaughn and David McCallum—this season have abandoned their light-hearted

Win Keeps Twins Tied for First

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dave Boswell and Earl Wilson took a short walk on the wild side. Boswell found his way back to Easy Street but Wilson ran into a dead end.

Boswell overcame a severe headache and early control problems Tuesday night and finished with a brilliant two-hitter as the Minnesota Twins held a share of the American League lead by pounding Kansas City 8-2.

The victory kept the Twins tied for first place with the Boston Red Sox, who scored the winning run on a bases-loaded wild pitch by Wilson. Detroit's 21-game winner, during a three-run ninth-inning spurt that caged the Tigers 4-2.

Detroit fell into the fourth spot in the hectic stretch race, one game behind the leaders and one-half length back of the Chicago White Sox, who blanked California 3-0 on Joe Horlen's six-hitter.

Baltimore shut out the New York Yankees 3-0 and Cleveland zipped Washington 2-0 in other AL games.

In National League play, St. Louis' runaway pennant winners nipped Philadelphia 1-0, San Francisco downed Chicago 6-2, Cincinnati topped Atlanta 3-1, Pittsburgh outslugged Houston 11-7 and New York bounced Los Angeles 6-3.

Boswell, a rangy, 22-year-old fireballer, breezed to his 14th victory after being hurt by five walks, two wild pitches and a hit batsman in the first four innings. He struck out eight and retired 16 of the last 17 batters he faced.

The Minnesota right-hander said his wildness was due, in part, to a sore back. "I decided I'd have to bend more and get the ball low in spite of the pain," he said.

The Twins, breaking out of a week-long hitting slump, tagged Jim Nash for four runs in the early innings, then struck for four unearned runs in the seventh after Sal Bando's error opened the gates.

"Now it's all up to us," Manager Cal Ermer said. "We have eight of the last 10 at home and our pitching rotation is straightened out. If the good Lord's willing, we'll win it."

"There's no point in worrying about the other teams," added Allison. "You can't play the scoreboard."

The Red Sox were down 2-1 on the scoreboard at Detroit when Jerry Adair reached southpaw Mickey Lolich for a leadoff single in the ninth. Carl Yastrzemski drew a walk and George Scott tied the score with a single to center.

Lolich, who had allowed only four hits while striking out 13 through the eighth, then was replaced by Wilson, making his first relief appearance of the year.

After Reggie Smith sacrificed, Wilson walked pinch hitter Dalon Jones intentionally, filling the bases. The Detroit ace then wild-pitched the go-ahead run home and the Red Sox added an insurance tally on Russ Gibson's sacrifice fly.

Jim Northrup's two-run homer in the sixth had given the Tigers their one-run edge. "Beautiful, beautiful," exclaimed Manager Dick Williams after the Red Sox' second straight comeback victory. "This team doesn't quit."

Horlen stranded Jim Fregosi after the California shortstop tripped with one out in the first inning, then limited the Angels to five singles on the way to his fifth shutout and 18th victory of the year.

The slim right-hander, who keyed the Sox' stretch drive with a no-hitter against Detroit 10 days ago, also singled to touch off a three-run flurry in the sixth against loser Jim McGlothlin. Tom McCraw's triple and singles by Tommie Agee and Ken Boyer delivered the runs and Horlen made them stand up.

Game in Atlanta
Was Special

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Atlanta game was something special to John Unitas. A year ago he came out of Atlanta with a damaged right shoulder that threatened to end his career.

The rest of the season was an agony of pain and interceptions because John couldn't put the speed on his short passes in tight situations. Unitas tried something different this year. In preseason camp of the Baltimore Colts he bled his arm, warming up only once a day and cutting down on the number of passes he threw. In the preseason games he saw limited action.

Last Sunday was opening day in the National Football League. Unitas and the Colts faced Atlanta at Memorial Stadium. They were asking the question: Is Unitas sound?

The veteran quarterback provided the answer by completing 22 of 32 passes for two touchdowns and 401 yards, his very first 400-plus game in 12 years of pro ball.

"I think this was John's all-time best passing performance," said Coach Don Shula of the Colts.

"John throws the ball sore arm and all, just as well as he always did," commented ex-teammate Alex Hawkins, now an Atlanta flanker. "You have to appreciate how much he did when you consider he doesn't have a running back going for him. We knew he was going to pass but we still couldn't stop him."

With testimonials like that, the Associated Press couldn't go wrong in naming Unitas the NFL Offensive Player of the Week.

Unitas hit Tom Matte over the middle on the first 1967 play from scrimmage for an 88-yard touchdown pass. Later he threw a 55-yard TD pass to Jimmy Orr and completed four straight for 51 yards in a clinching fourth quarter TD drive in a 38-31 victory.

Says Texas Will Beat Southern Cal

NEW YORK (AP) — Newest addition to the dress of a football forecaster is a chest protector.

That is to help keep the buttons from flying off one's vest because of an opening vest with a 26-5 record for .840. May there be more of them through the season?

Notre Dame over California: The way some people talk you would think that quarterback Terry Hanratty and end Jim Seymour were the only two football players on the Notre Dame team. The truth is, there are several others.

Texas over Southern California: The Longhorns have a horde of young running backs plus Bill Bradley at quarterback. The Trojans' No. 1 field general, Toby Page, was severely shaken up last week and may not be at his best.

Alabama over Florida State: The Crimson Tide's defense supposedly is so strong it will need only a field goal for Coach Bear Bryant's team to pick up another victory.

Penn State over Navy: Jack Curry and Ted Kwalick give Penn State the East's best pair of ends. Navy counters with Rob Taylor, all-East as a pass receiver a year ago.

UCLA over Pitt: The Californians won, 57-14, last year but Pitt has improved.

Miami over Northwestern: The Hurricanes have added an offense to go with their potent defense of the past. It is centered around Jim Cox, end; Bill

McCormick
First 20
Game Hurler

By HAL BOCK

The St. Louis Cardinals are champions of the National League but the consolation prize for reclamation project of the year goes to Mike McCormick of the San Francisco Giants.

McCormick became the league's first 20-game winner Tuesday when the Giants rallied for five ninth-inning runs and a 6-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Jack Hiatt's two-run pinch double keyed San Francisco's ninth-inning uprising and helped McCormick reach the 20-victory mark for the first time.

Elsewhere in the National League Tuesday, New York dropped Los Angeles 6-3, St. Louis blanked Philadelphia 1-0, Cincinnati trimmed Atlanta 3-1 and Pittsburgh rallied for an 11-7 victory over Houston.

In the hectic American League, Boston rallied for a 4-2 victory over Detroit, Minnesota ripped Kansas City 8-2, Cleveland blanked Washington 2-0, Baltimore shut out New York 3-0 and Chicago stymied California 3-0.

It took 11 years and three trades before McCormick finally paid off on the investment the Giants made on him back in 1956 when they signed him as a 17-year-old bonus baby.

He was traded to Baltimore in 1963 and to Washington in 1965 before returning to San Francisco in an unheralded three-player swap last winter. He's been anything but unheralded for the Giants though.

"Breaks," he said, "that's the big thing in this game. I can look back and honestly say I pitched as well in 1960 and 1961 as I did this year. But I won 15 one year and 13 another."

He got the breaks Tuesday. Trailing 2-1 against Ferguson Jenkins after eight innings, McCormick departed for a pinch hitter as the Giants rallied in the ninth. He was the pitcher on record when the runs scored and received credit for the victory.

Jim Davenport's pinch single drove in the Giants' tying run and after Hiatt's hit broke the deadlock, singles by Ollie Brown and Jim Hart drove in two more runs.

Rookie Bob Halse doubled two runs across and then scored a tie-breaker on Tommy Davis' hit as the Mets rallied for three runs in the fifth inning and went on to defeat Los Angeles.

Les Rohr, another rookie, went six innings to gain the victory and helped the Mets tie one record and break another. He was their 54th player this season—most ever for a NL club—and the 27th pitcher—tying a major league mark.

Dick Hughes won his 15th for the champion Cardinals, outpitching Jim Bunning with a five-hitter. Ed Spiezio's first-inning single scored Bobby Tolan with the game's only run.

Bunning, 16-14, struck out seven, raising his league-leading total to 234. Leo Cardenas drove in the tie-breaking run with an eighth-inning single and then scored an insurance run on Tommy Helms' sacrifice fly as the Reds tagged the Braves with their fifth straight loss.

Manny Mota delivered a pair of hits in a six-run ninth inning that carried the Pirates past Houston. Mota started the rally with a pinch single and climaxed it with a two-run hit.

Rookie Bob Robertson whacked a two-run homer for Pittsburgh and pitcher Bob Moose unloaded a two-run triple. Aaron Pointer drove in two runs for the Astros on a single and a double.

Miller, quarterback, and Jerry Daanen, a flanker. Illinois over Florida: The Big Ten team seeks to redeem its prestige after the scandal of last winter that cost it its coaching staff.

Michigan State over Houston: The Spartans will win but Warren McVea will give them a workout.

Georgia over Mississippi State: Georgia's entire starting backfield, returns intact. Mississippi State relying heavily on sophomores.

Purdue over Texas A&M: The Boilermakers have their powerful defensive platoon back and claim their new quarterback, Mike Engelbrecht, is faster, stronger and a better thrower than Bob Griese.

Georgia Tech over Vanderbilt: Two brand new coaches in this one but Bill Pace at Vanderbilt didn't inherit any horses while Bud Carson at Tech did.

Wash npton over Wisconsin: The Huskies got all the kinks out of their system in last Saturday's encounter with Nebraska.

The showdown meeting between defending champion Crossett and challenging Malvern did not settle a thing as the two teams battled to a 7-7 tie last Friday night. At that, they may have done the rest of the league a favor. At least the 1967 championship battle is still wide open.

While the Eagles and Leopards were playing to a stalemate, the Smackover Bucks pulled off an upset by downing the Fairview Cardinals 14-13 on Thursday night. In the only other conference action Magnolia came from behind to defeat Camden 20-9. In non-league action Hope defeated DeQueen 13-6; Warren downed Dumas 27-12; Arkadelphia lost to Nashville 33-0.

Conference action this week sends Magnolia to Crossett; Fairview plays at Warren; and Smackover goes to Hope. Non-league actions sends Malvern to Catholic High on Thursday night; Prescott is host to Arkadelphia and Camden travels to Fordyce.

Hope, Crossett, Malvern, and Warren currently are unbeaten in 4AA play.

Leigh Hargis of Warren has taken over the individual scoring leadership with 25-points on three TDs and seven extra points. Team-mate Rickey Garrett is close behind with 24-points.

R. Riles of Crossett and L. Hargis, Warren leads the Point After Touchdown department with seven conversions each.

Warren leads all teams in Net Yards Rushing with 761-yards. Malvern leads in defense against rushing yielding 89-yards. Magnolia is the leading passing team with 366-yards. Warren leads in defense against passing with 76-yards. Fairview leads in team scoring with 75-points.

Player Denies Partial Retirement

By WILL GRIMSLEY
UPPER MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — In semi-retirement? Don't be silly, Gary Player said today, adding: "I haven't reached my peak yet. I expect to play and win a lot more golf tournaments."

"In fact, next year I'm going all out again. I am forced to play in 15 PGA tournaments to keep my player card."

The meticulous little shotmaker from Johannesburg, normally very mild and seldom outspoken, is plainly miffed at suggestions that he's now merely going through the golf motions, ready to give up his membership in golf's so-called "Big Three" and pinning to return to his five kids and 75 white-faced cows in South Africa.

"It's true that golf is very tough on me," Player said, preparing for the final practice round prior to the $150,000 Thunderbird Tournament, starting Thursday at the Upper Montclair Country Club. "I want to play golf. I also want to be with my family. So the pressure is very great."

"But this is my profession. I don't plan to give it up at such an early age. I'm 31, you know, and Ben Hogan didn't win his first major tournament until he was 35. I figure I have a lot of good golf left in me."

Winner of the four major crowns — the Masters, U.S. and British opens and the PGA — Player has been bracketed with Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer as a member of the "Big Three" but he played only spasmodically the last two years. His last major tournament triumph in this country was the U.S. Open in 1965.

"The trouble is most people judge golfers by what they do in the United States," he said. "They forget I've won the World Match Play championship in England twice, playing against both Nicklaus and Palmer."

"I have the best record of all in Australia. I've won four Australian opens and 16 tournaments down there."

"I'll tell you this, if I lived in the United States and could commute from home to a tournament site overnight, as many do, I don't think anybody would have a better record."

fense, allowing 125 yards, and in rushing defense, allowing 56 yards.

Porks Have Fine Running
Fullback

Associated Press Writer
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — No longer can Arkansas' opponents afford to discount the fullback as a ball-carrying threat.

Head Coach Frank Broyles says the fullback, sophomore Glenn Hockersmith of Benton, will carry the ball far more than the Razorback fullbacks of the past three or four years and coach Jonny Majors echoes Broyles' promises.

The reason for the fullback's expanded duties is simple. "Quite possibly Glenn has more running ability than any fullback we've had in the last three or four years," said Majors, who is handling the offensive backs for the first time.

"We've given the ball to the fullback more each year since we started using the I in 1964 and this year will not be any different." Eddie Woodlee, the 1966 fullback, carried 35 times for 213 yards and finished fourth among Arkansas rushing leaders for the season.

Benton's Bobby Nix excelled as a blocker from the fullback spot in 1964 and 1965 but touched the ball even less than Woodlee. Majors says it is difficult to determine how much Hockersmith will carry the ball.

"We have no idea at this stage," Majors said. "It depends on what the different defenses do."

Hockersmith is listed at 5-foot-10 and 193 pounds. "He's from the same mold as Woodlee," said Majors. "He's a compact built kid and he's a good blocker. He's built low to the ground and that makes him effective in using the blocking technique we use."

The fullback, of course, will continue to be a key blocker in Arkansas' offense.

"I think he will be an outstanding blocker before he is through here," said Majors. "He

Kickers
Are Named
By Broyles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Football Coach Frank Broyles said Tuesday that sophomore Bobby Gentry of Stamps would handle the Razorbacks' kickoffs Saturday night in the season opener against Oklahoma State at Little Rock.

Broyles also said that punter Paul Conner had "kicked consistently" during Tuesday's practice. Conner averaged only 32.7 yards per punt on 19 attempts during the spring after punting for a 39.9 average on 52 kicks in 1966.

Broyles said the Razorbacks would practice for about 90 minutes today and only 60 minutes Thursday. He said the Porks had many busted plays in Monday's practice.

"Tuesday we were trying to polish both offensively and defensively," he said.

Broyles said 57 players would make the trip to Little Rock and that the team would spend Friday night in Hot Springs.

not only has desire and a good attitude but he's got ability. He has done what we have asked of him and he doesn't make any big to do about it."

Hockersmith's ability to run with the ball should give the other backs a better chance of popping for the long run.

"It certainly is an asset any time every back in your backfield is a running threat," Majors said. "Hockersmith has the ability to squeeze through a small hole."

Levias Is Player of the Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)— "There was this Aggie who lost $5.00 on the game and $20.00 on the replay," said Jerry Levias, Southern Methodist's big play man who was named back of the week for beating Texas A&M. Levias was putting ice on a foot that had been stepped on in the game Saturday when his catch of a touchdown pass with only four seconds to go brought Southern Methodist a 20-17 victory.

Levias, with the Aggie joke (Aggie jokes are akin to ethnic jokes elsewhere), was emphasizing the fact that the lead in the game changed hands three times in the final period. First it seemed SMU had won when Dennis Partee kicked a field goal. Then the Aggies put on a drive to score with only 43 seconds left.

But, Jerry added, he sure was glad they made pictures of football games these days because that was the only way he could find out what really happened as he led SMU to victory.

"I got knocked out when I ran back that kickoff," he said. "But I don't know what happened in the rest of the game."

There were only 39 seconds involved but Levias took back the kickoff 24 yards, caught a pass for 12, ran for 5 and took another pass for 20. Then, as SMU moved to the six-yard line, he sped into the end zone and took Les Perez' throw for a touchdown. Levias, who was credited with winning six of Southern Methodist's eight victories last season, said he was happy he could figure in winning the first of the new season.

"But I don't like for it to be so late," he grinned. "It's too hard on the coaches and the fans."

"It's a real honor," said Levias when told he was The Associated Press Back of the Week.

Running Backs Have Good Day in Pro Play

NEW YORK (AP) — Three running backs each gained more than 100 yards last Sunday on the National Football League's opening day but the big surprise had to be Bill (Please Don't Call Me Willie) Asbury of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Johnny Roland, the 1966 rookie of the year, ran for 124 yards at St. Louis in a losing cause. Dan Reeves, a key man on Dallas' champs of the East a year ago, gained 114 yards. That was expected.

Asbury, supposed to be playing second fiddle to Earl Gros with the Steelers, rambled for 107 yards on 12 carries, scored two touchdowns and averaged 8.9 yards per carry.

When Gros suffered a knee injury in training, Asbury got back his old starting job. He doesn't figure on giving it up.

John Unitas of Baltimore leads the quarterbacks in the first weekly NFL statistics after throwing for 401 yards, a career high, in Baltimore's opener with Atlanta.

Riots Follow Shooting in Dayton, Ohio

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A street corner rally called to protest the slaying of a Negro man by a vice squad detective led to vandalism, window breaking and looting on the city's West Side Tuesday night.

Police Maj. Grover O'Connor called the disturbance "another one of those criminal insurrections."

About 100 arrests were made, he said. A few minor injuries were reported.

About 250 members of the Ohio National Guard remained on standby alert at nearby Troy as police equipped with riot gear clamped down on the troubled area, which was reported quiet at 3 a.m. today.

The trouble spot, along a 12-block area of West 3rd Street, was the scene of racial disorders last July and rioting which was put down with National Guard help in September 1966.

The latest unrest in the predominantly Negro area began building up after Robert Elwood Barbee, 41, a Negro, of Findlay, Ohio, was shot in the back twice Sunday night as he fled from vice squadman Robert S. Collier.

Collier, 30, wearing plainclothes, had stopped Barbee, apparently thinking he had a gun, they Barbee fled. The "gun" turned out to be a smoking pipe in a holder of the victim's belt.

Collier, an eight-year veteran of the force, was charged with manslaughter Monday. He pleaded innocent at his arraignment and was released on his own recognizance.

Lindsey Is Trying to End Strike

By BOB MONROE

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiations on a new peace proposal advanced by Mayor John V. Lindsay continued today as schools opened for their eighth day of makeshift classes during a teachers' strike in the 1.1-million-pupil city public school system.

An aide to Lindsay, press secretary Harry O'Donnell, reported that there had been progress in the talks and the remaining unsettled issues had been narrowed to two or three. He did not name them.

The Board of Education and the striking AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers met past midnight at Gracie Mansion for the third consecutive night weighing the plan which would alter the board's offer of a two-year $125-million package.

Instead, Lindsay proposed that the contract period be extended to 26 months and that $10.4 million or more be added to the total package.

The Association of Assistant Principals called on its 1,600 members to stay off the job today after the board rejected an association request to close the city's 900 schools on safety grounds.

The Council of Supervisory Associations also demanded that schools be closed at once and gave the board "one more day" to act.

After that, the council said it would urge its 3,600 members to "dismiss pupils as soon as they report to schools to protect them against hazardous conditions that now exist."

Supervisory personnel have been principally responsible for keeping the schools open on a token basis during the walkout which began Sept. 11, the start of the fall term.

Middle East Refugees Big Problem

By LYNN HEINZLERING
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A problem of humanity that has gone on nearly 20 years—what to do about the Palestine refugees—is growing in the wake of the Middle East war.

It started when the old British-mandated territory of Palestine was partitioned to form a Jewish homeland, now Israel. It reached a climax in the Arab-Israeli war of 1948, when many Arabs were uprooted from their homes.

There were slightly fewer than a million refugees then. Some have found a life of their own, but others have multiplied—there are grandchildren of the original refugees who are refugees now. And their number grew in the war last June, so that today 1,317,000 are registered with the United Nations Relief and Works Agency, or UNRWA.

In June more than 100,000 Arabs crossed the Jordan River into the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. They were joined by perhaps 100,000 more unregistered refugees, Palestinians with settled homes and jobs on the west bank of the Jordan, now occupied by Israel. Some fled to the Gaza Strip, others to Syria.

They drifted into the desert, moved into towns and villages. They doubled up with relatives and imposed on friends to find sleeping room. For weeks and months, the trek continued and it is still going on.

In Victor Mollo's "Bridge in the Menagerie", Hideo Hog wants to play all dummies. He is typical of a great many players in this respect but this hog at least justifies his hand hogging by playing very well.

Today's hand finds him playing with the Rabbit. The Hog has broken the Rabbit of the habit of bidding no-trump and feels safe in opening with one club. The Rabbit's two spade response produces a two no-trump rebid from the Hog. He plans to raise to four spades if the Rabbit rebids his spade suit but when the Rabbit goes to three hearts the Hog barges right into six no-trump.

We don't quite understand the Rabbit's three heart bid but as Victor explains, no one understands the Rabbit's bid or plays.

The Hog is delighted with the dummy and sees that his six no-trump will make if he can collect three spade tricks.
He wins the heart lead and cashes dummy's ace of spades, just in case there is a singleton king somewhere.
East shows out and the Hog appears to be down one but at least he has avoided the spade trap. No amount of genius could bring home a spade slam.

Actually the Hog is not too worried about his contract. He runs off four clubs and is pleased to see a diamond and a spade discard from West.
Three diamonds come next and on the third diamond West has to discard again. Another spade discard will be fatal so West lets a heart go. The Hog knows now that West has one heart and three spades.
He proceeds to cash dummy's remaining top heart and leads a spade to his queen.

West can't afford to duck, nor can he afford to take his king. The Hog shows his hand and chalks up another slam.

Reagan Rules Out Any Early Campaigning
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan ruled out today the creation of a Reagan-For-President campaign organization before the 1968 Republican National Convention.
Reagan said he is not a candidate for the nation's highest office. But, for the first time, he said, "I'm aware of the talk that's been going on" about the possibility of him becoming a candidate.
But he disclosed he will set up machinery in California to handle the June presidential primary campaign for the favorite-son delegation he intends to lead to the convention.
Reagan said he will have an organization in California next year to assure a good showing for his delegation. He said he decided to lead the state Republican delegation to prevent other candidates from coming into California and engaging in a repeat of the bitter Nelson A. Rockefeller-Barry Goldwater California fight of 1964.
Reagan was interviewed in his Capitol office less than two weeks before he leaves on a speaking tour to Illinois, South Carolina and Wisconsin in which he plans to discuss Vietnam and domestic issues.
Asked if he could see any circumstance that would force the convention to turn to him, Reagan said, "There is no way I can answer that question."
He said that any answer short of a flat "no" would be taken as a declaration of candidacy. He reiterated, however, he is not a candidate for president.
Reagan said he definitely will not take part in pre-convention campaigning in primaries or rounding up delegates at state conventions.
He also said he didn't believe he would be drafted as a presidential choice.
Reagan reiterated he will not campaign in Oregon, Nebraska and Wisconsin, states where he name is expected to be on the open primary ballot.
The governor said New Hampshire's secretary of state soon will receive a letter from him refusing permission for his name to be on that state's primary ballot.
But the governor's upcoming speaking tour includes a speech in Milwaukee, Wis., and in November he will speak in Oregon.
He said the 1968 presidential campaign would revolve around Vietnam, inflation and "some of the things like Detroit and Newark," cities hit by racial violence and what he termed "symbols" of the nation's domestic problems.
Corn ranks as the No. 1 crop in the United States, with a record 4.2 billion bushels having been harvested in 1965.

Random Roadside Breath Tests

LONDON (AP) — British police will start random roadside "breath tests" next month to nab drunken drivers, and are expected to conduct up to two million "breathalyzer" tests in a year.

Refusal to take the breath test will make drivers liable to a fine of $140. Along with those who take the test, those who refuse the test may still be convicted of drunken driving. And that can cost $260 plus four months in jail.

On May 1, 1884, construction crews in Chicago started work on a 10-story office building, the first structure to be called a "skyscraper."

Bid to Percy, Limelight to Dirksen

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the 58-vote Illinois delegation ratifies the deal, Sen. Charles H. Percy will get the state's favorite-son designation and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen will claim a limelight at the 1968 Republican convention.

Percy, a relative liberal and a dove on the Vietnam war, got clearance Tuesday from Dirksen, the conservative GOP leader of the Senate and a hard-liner on Vietnam, for home base support to prospect the Republican presidential nomination field.

The price tag on this agreement is the expected designation of Dirksen as chairman of the state delegation, his appointment to the national platform drafting committee and his selection as chairman of that group.

Dirksen looks to this forum, with its attendant glare of public exposure, to further his campaign for re-election to a fourth Senate term. Dirksen, who will be 72 in 1968, may find the going tough, particularly if Democrat Adlai Stevenson III is his opponent.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex N. Washburn
Who's Running
U.S.A. — President or Mr. Ashmore?

For a Yellow Dog Democratic journal that studiously follows the Washingtonians' line the Arkansas Gazette performed some editorial gymnastics this morning that can only be explained by the supposition it was going to the aid of an old hand.

Harry Ashmore, former executive editor of the Gazette, is making new headlines nowadays because he went to Hanoi with an alleged peace formula and returned home to accuse President Johnson of double-crossing him by simultaneously sending North Vietnam a message which destroyed Ashmore's venture.

The Gazette rushed into print this morning with an editorial "How Johnson Wrecked Peace Possibilities" — obviously supporting Ashmore's side of the controversy.

If, that is, there are two sides. From where I sit there's only one side. As President Mr. Johnson is charged, along with the Senate, with responsibility for our country's foreign relations. To assume he is answerable to Harry Ashmore's charges is just as ridiculous as saying he to make foreign policy fit the preconceived notions of every one of America's 170 million private citizens.

For Harry Ashmore is simply a private citizen with delusions of grandeur. He is a wheeler and dealer in titles — former executive editor of the Gazette, now executive vice-president of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions at Santa Barbara, Calif., and seldom out of reach of funds from some tax-exempt foundation.

So he goes to Hanoi on tax-exempt funds. What right does that give him to challenge the President's powers for peace or war — when you or I would have to pay our own way to Hanoi and still remain merely another American tourist?

Ashmore personally is unimportant. What is important is that the average American understand once and for all that foreign relations are delegated solely to the elected President and Congress — they alone are responsible to the people, and if you mean to bring private citizens into the picture then responsibility isn't fixed anywhere and America and the world are thrown into chaos.

One of the early American documents, the Logan Act, recognized this specific danger — forbidding private citizens from attempting to usurp the power to negotiate with foreign governments, the exercise of which power is reserved exclusively for the duly elected officials of this Republic.

THEATER NOTE

Showing at the Saenger theater for the last time at 7:30 this Wednesday night is one of the finest motion pictures ever produced — 20th Century Fox's version of Irving Stone's novel "The Agony and the Ecstasy."

It is the story of how Michelangelo did his famous paintings on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in Rome. Charlton Heston plays Michelangelo, and Rex Harrison plays the role of the pope, Julius II — an exciting duel between two great and conflicting personalities at a time when the world was full of trouble.

It is not only good theater but the greatest exposition of how art is achieved that I have ever seen on stage or screen. It's a two-and-a-half-hour show — but the hours pass like minutes. Best scene: Where Julius II and Michelangelo clash on philosophy, and Julius ponders aloud, "Perhaps I should have been the artist and business man — and you the pope!"

Shooting Ruled as Justified

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — The shooting last Wednesday of Mrs. Effie Mae Peterson, about 55, by Helena Patrolman David Miller was justified, a Phillips County Grand Jury ruled Tuesday.

Mrs. Peterson was hit at least twice by shots fired by Miller. Deputy Sheriff Basil Jones said Miller went to Mrs. Peterson's house to investigate a complaint that Mrs. Peterson was "shooting up" her house. The deputy said Mrs. Peterson twice fired a 12-gauge shotgun at Miller from a doorway when he arrived.

Israel Tanks Sink Three Egypt Boats

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli tank gunners sank three Egyptian patrol boats carrying about 45 armed and helmeted soldiers today after Egypt twice tried to ferry them down the blocked Suez Canal, an Israeli armed forces spokesman said.

About 15 Egyptians in fatigue uniforms jumped from each craft into the canal after tanks fired on them at dawn and again about 2½ hours later, sources said. They were seen struggling in the water and several casualties were reported.

An Egyptian official in Cairo denied the Israeli claim, charging that the Israelis opened fire without provocation on Egyptian positions across the 100-yard wide canal. He maintained no Egyptian boats were on the waterway.

Israeli observers in Tel Aviv accused Egypt of attempting to create tension to coincide with the opening sessions of the U.N. General Assembly in New York.

Fears Loss of Lake to Pollution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. David H. Pryor, D-Ark., told the Senate Public Works Committee Tuesday that if the pollution on the lower two-thirds of Lake Chicot, Ark., continued at the present rate the entire lake would be lost to recreation.

Pryor said such a loss would result in a loss to the local economy of more than $850,000 a year in retail sales and urged the committee to include a project in the next omnibus rivers and harbors authorization bill to free the lake of mud and silt pollution.

Pryor called restoration of the lake in Southeast Arkansas one of the most crucial public works projects in the nation. He said that if the lake is restored fully it would result in about $3.2 million being pumped into the economy of the area.

The Army Engineers has recommended that silt be diverted to the Mississippi River through the use of a pumping system. It estimated that the project would cost almost $15 million in federal funds and $530,000 in nonfederal money.

One-Way Supermarket Aisles Can Cause No End of Trouble

By JAMES F. DONAHUE
BOSTON (AP) — Supermarkets have become so big and crowded that many have established one-way traffic in their aisles. This can cause tremendous problems, especially for unwary males who are unfamiliar with supermarkets anyway.

Like for Ted Lumpke who was 39 when his wife got sick and he had to go to a supermarket for the first time. As soon as he got his grocery push cart he made a wrong turn down a one-way aisle.

Women began shouting at him: "One way, one way" and giving him dirty looks as they steered their push carts past him.

The store manager came rushing down the aisle waving his arms. "You can't push your push cart east on this aisle," he said. "This is a west aisle."

"Where are the eggs?" Lumpke asked.

"Row G, Section A, Shelf 3, eggs, beans and bacon," the manager said. Lumpke backed out and went to Row G, but it was one way west at his end and he wanted to go east. He went around the store and came to Row G at its other end and there he saw a Hope Junior and Senior high school have a combined enrollment this year of 583 students which represents an eight percent increase over last year, Joe Barentine, high school principal, told Hope Kiwanis club Tuesday in a speech on education and the Hope school system.

This has brought on crowded conditions in both schools, but with the new science building nearing completion, the situation will be alleviated in the near future, Mr. Barentine went on to say.

One of the keys to successful education is a well-qualified faculty, and we have one of the best at Hope, with 38 different subjects being taught in the junior and senior grades.

While Ford Is Struck, Other Auto Makers Are Gobbling Up Market

DETROIT (AP) — A top United Auto Workers Union official says General Motors Corp. is "stealing as much of the market" as it can while Ford Motor Co. is idled by a UAW strike.

GM is "piling on as much production as possible," said Leonard Woodcock, a UAW vice president and head of the union's GM department. The company denied the charge.

With Ford shut down by some 160,000 UAW workers in support of demands for a new contract, Woodcock said GM's production of 1968 model cars "is greater now than at any time in other model starts," Woodcock said.

Labor demands include a guaranteed annual income, a share of corporate profits, a "substantial" pay hike, boosts in fringe benefits and improved working conditions. Both union and Ford officials have indicated the strike would last a month or longer.

Ford and UAW negotiators again put noneconomic issues on the agenda for their meeting today.

Ford's union workers today began drawing their first strike benefits — ranging from $20 a week for an unmarried worker to $30 for a worker with a family. The benefits are expected to drain approximately $4 million weekly from the union's strike fund, currently containing $67 million.

Rat Issue Passed by Single Vote

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, by one vote, has tentatively approved a $40-million increase in funds authorized for rat extermination and other state health programs.

If sustained on a vote scheduled for today, the action could partially erase what many members consider a black mark on the House for its rejection in July of the administration's $40-million rat control bill.

The measure adopted 129 to 128 Tuesday as an amendment to a $950 million health bill would increase the funds available for state public health programs by $20 million this year and $20 million next year.

When debate concluded for the night, Republicans were attacking an emergency $58-million hospital aid program included by Democrats in the bill.

Overwhelming passage of the House measure was expected today after action on the two controversial portions.

While funds in the bill are given for the states to use according to their needs, backers of the additional $40 million indicated they hope it would go largely for rat control. Twelve states have included rat control in programs developed under the health act passed initially last year.

The amendment was sponsored by Reps. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., and Charles M. Mathias Jr., R-Md., both of whom supported the administration effort in July to set up a new rat control program in the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

"The rat is more than the carrier of disease," Mathias said. "He has become the symbol of official cynicism."

The program was arranged by Tom Purvis, Dale Franks, also a member of the high school faculty, was a guest.

Disagreement at Osceola

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — Osceola Mayor Charlie Wiygul said Tuesday that Alderman J. E. Teaford is no longer chairman of the City Utilities Committee and that he would appoint one of the other six members of the City Council as chairman.

Teaford and three other members of the council have been at sharp disagreement with Wiygul and two other council members over a power contract that must be decided by Nov. 22. That is the date the present contract with Arkansas Power & Light Co. terminates.

Bombers Hit Enemy Artillery

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — High-altitude B52 bombers and low-sweeping jets piled more than a half-million pounds of explosives today on Communist artillery and mortars that wounded more than 100 Marines in 24 hours of heavy shelling near the Demilitarized Zone.

Military headquarters reported one Marine was killed in the firing from the big gun emplacements on sandbagged fortresses near the zone dividing the Vietnamese.

The focus of the Communist attacks were the deeply entrenched Marine bastions of Con Thien and Gio Linh just below the DMZ.

Associated Press correspondent Edwin Q. White reported from Marine headquarters that shelling was so intense that road traffic to the two posts was suspended and all supplies were forced to move up on medical evacuation helicopters.

The Communist gunners used everything from light mortars inside the DMZ to long-range Soviet-built artillery placed 10 miles and more to the north. More than 300 shells have hit the two U.S. posts in the past 24 hours and every few hours there were reports of more shelling.

The giant, eight-engine B52s from Guam and Thailand swept over the battlefield three times today with each raid dropping a minimum of 150,000 pounds of explosives.

Marine jets flew 27 missions against the Red gun positions Tuesday and were back at it Wednesday to support their comrades taking the pounding on the ground.

"It is very difficult to find those gun positions," Lt. Gen. William W. Momyer, commander of the Air Force in Vietnam, said. He noted they are deeply dug-in, well camouflaged and scattered in jungle territory.

At South Main and 16th yesterday afternoon there was a car-school bus collision but nobody was injured.

Land Surge Weakens Storm Some

By PAUL REGER
BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Hurricane Beulah, a vicious storm that took nearly 30 lives, crashed inland today and spun off killing and destructive tornadoes.

The Weather Bureau said at a late hour that the eye was between San Benito and Harlingen after smashing ashore at the mouth of the Rio Grande, which separates Texas and Mexico.

Hurricanes normally begin a great curve toward the north-east when they hit land and this does not rule out the possibility it might turn into the Gulf of Mexico again.

But it eased the severity of the forecasts for Corpus Christi, 160 miles north of Brownsville, where the Weather Bureau earlier predicted Beulah would hit with storm-driven tides of possible historic heights.

At Corpus Christi, rain and wind hit and some trees toppled, but traffic remained heavy on streets and many business houses remained open.

"She's about the biggest, nastiest storm I've ever seen," said the veteran pilot of a Navy hurricane hunter plane after flying through the eye.

The Weather Bureau issued a tornado warning for the area from Corpus Christi to Baffin Bay, about 30 miles south of Corpus Christi. One tornado was sighted 30 miles south of Corpus Christi.

For comparison, famous hurricane Carla, which struck the Texas coast Sept. 11, 1961, had winds estimated at 175 m.p.h., only slightly higher than Beulah. Although a half million persons fled inland, 40 persons died and damage was estimated at $500 million.

Nixon Steps Up Drive for Nomination

By STANLEY JOHNSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is stepping up the pace of his campaign for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination which his aides believe he is virtually sure to win.

Their optimism was bolstered Sunday by a Los Angeles Times poll which showed him running far ahead of Gov. Ronald Reagan and all other contenders in Nixon's former home state of California. Nixon had 28 per cent of that state's GOP voters with 11 per cent for Reagan.

Nixon said in an Associated Press interview, "I have to be dramatically effective in the primaries. If I can't demonstrate the ability to win, I've had it."

Fighting for those victories, Nixon has set up campaign organizations in four states which have presidential primaries. His staff members think he's sure to win in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and Nebraska, but may have a hard time in Oregon.

Despite the new organizations, sponsored by the Nixon for President Committee of Washington, Nixon has not formally announced whether he is in the running.

He said he will do that—one way or the other—between Dec. 1 and Feb. 1, adding, "I might put my foot in my mouth between then and now and knock myself out of the race."

Nixon now is concentrating on broad issues of foreign affairs while consulting with "the best brains in the country on domestic affairs."

The interview, he warned fellow contenders for the nomination not to run on a platform of "peace at any price" in Vietnam.

"The candidate might win," he said, "but the Republican president would soon have another war on his hands."

He called for greater use of sea and air power in the conflict and charged that frustration is growing because "people don't believe what the administration says about Vietnam."

Pythons Are Hard to Measure

NEW YORK (AP) — It was weighing and measuring day for reptiles at the Bronx Zoo Monday.

In the morning five keepers wrestled with 10 pythons to find out they ranged in length from 10 feet 9 inches to 19 feet 4 inches.

A Cuban crocodile, described as the most vicious reptile at the zoo, struggled 55 minutes in the afternoon before the keepers were able to bind it and tape its jaws closed.

The animal weighed in at 269 pounds and measured 8 feet 5 1/2 inches long.

The purpose of the annual check is to determine growth and permit cleaning of living areas.

Recommends Franchise

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued a recommended order which would grant a franchise to Great Southern Coaches to operate passenger busses from Newport to Little Rock.

The route would give both Paragould and Jonesboro direct service to the capital city for passenger travel and station to station express.

Great Southern stated, in applying for the route, that the firm would operate four round trips daily, ensuring passenger travel to and from Little Rock on the same day.

The only bus line currently operating between Newport and Little Rock is the Continental Midwest Busline which travels from St. Louis to Houston.

Cotton Farmers Hope Weather Will Give Them a Little Break

By CRAGG HINES

United Press International Cotton farmers and crop forecasters are already hoping that the weather will give them a fairer shake than last year when a Nov. 2 freeze cut them out of approximately 284,000 bales.

A similar fate has not been forecast yet by the U.S. Department of Agriculture statisticians and crop reporting service, but the USDA says there are already two reasons why cotton will almost certainly be outclassed as Arkansas' No. 1 crop.

Hosea Harkness, USDA statistician in Little Rock, talked out the problems in an interview with United Press International. He said:

"This year's crop is running quite late — as did last year's. The Sept. 1 forecast of total bale yield is 790,000 bales — 250,000 less than the prediction at the same time last year.

"There are two reasons. First, the planted acreage is down. Farmers cut the cotton acreage in the state by 75,000 acres — from 865,000 in 1966 to prints, and grass had grown up in places between the broken linoleum.

The sign mixup must have occurred months ago, Lumpke thought, even years.

He pushed his cart over the cracked floor between the stripped and dirty shelves, the thrill of the explorer in his heart. He found the starved, emaciated woman against an empty carton of beans.

"Thank God," she said. "They've fixed the signs. I'm the lone survivor of a shopping party trapped in 1961 when the signs were mixed up. I've been existing on eggs, bacon and beans for six years."

"But the signs haven't been changed," Lumpke said.

The woman's thin, cracked face turned white. "But how did you get in?" she asked.

"I went east at the west end," Lumpke said, and the woman could only look at him in wonder.

"Come with me," Lumpke said. He helped the poor woman to the west end of the aisle where they met the store manager.

"Here," the manager said, "you can't come out. This is the west end of Row G, an east aisle."

"But if we can't come out by going west at the east end or east at the west end," Lump

"I can't help that," the manager said.

"Without a chaperon?" Lumpke asked indignantly. "In a supermarket, the last bastion of middle-class morality."

The manager, realizing Lumpke had appealed to a higher law, let them out. "The pure of heart always win in a supermarket," Lumpke said.

"I hope you plan to pay for the eggs, bacon, and beans," the manager told the woman.

790,000 in 1967.

"Second, there was a very poor early planting season. May was cool and wet. That kind of weather is not conducive to germination for the initial stand."

Harkness said if the farmers had had just two or three more weeks last year the crop would have been almost completely out of the fields.

The U.S. Environmental Service (Weather bureau) said the average date for the first killing freeze in Arkansas was Nov. 21. Their spokesman said the bureau does not make an annual prediction on when the first heavy freeze will be. He said there would undoubtedly be several lighter frosts before that.

E. R. McInnes, chief of the U.S. Cotton Division in Little Rock, said there is already some boll rot around the bottom of many of the state's cotton plants. He said the rot discolors the fiber and said mills will not pay as much for it.

He also said the recent wet weather in the state has weakened the fiber, reducing the price.

McInnes said he has only had samples from a dozen bales so far, so he cannot sight a trend in quality in this year's crop.

Pam-Am Air Strike Is Called Illegal

BULLETIN

NEW YORK (AP) — A spokesman for the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks said Wednesday the union had called its strike against Pan American World Airways.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A strike by members of the Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks, America and World Airways got off to an uneven, sputtering start early today.

A federal judge in New York declared the strike illegal and another, in Honolulu, ordered strikers there back to work.

About 250 Pan American ground service employees in Honolulu began walking off their jobs nearly six hours before the 12:01 a.m. EDT deadline.

But Judge C. Nils Tavares of U.S. District Court in Honolulu granted an airline request and ordered the strikers to return to work.

The 7,000 clerks, ticket writers and cargo men represented by the union struck in other areas also. But some local unions voted to respect the temporary restraining order issued Tuesday afternoon by Judge Frederick Van Pelt Bryan of U.S. District Court in New York City.

Spokesmen for the airline said all flights were arriving and departing on schedule and supervisory personnel were substituting for those employees not on the job.

Medicare May Cost More by Oct. 1

By JACK MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's elderly are supposed to find out by Oct. 1 whether the $3 a month they now pay for doctor-bill insurance under medicare will be increased for the coming two years, but the announcement may be delayed.

It was learned the administration is considering asking Congress to extend the date by which John W. Gardner, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, is required to announce the new rate.

Sources said department officials would like to see the date extended until Congress has completed action on medicare provisions in the Social Security bill—probably not until November.

Department officials say many pending medicare proposals could require a rate increase above whatever increase the department might now find necessary.

One proposal, now being hotly debated, would add the cost of prescription drugs to medicare benefits. Administration officials have said this would mean raising the rate by 50 cents to $1. The government contributes an equal amount.

Gardner said last week he is against adding drugs to medicare before he gets a final task force report on the issue next June 1.

The Social Security package, including medicare, has passed the House and now is in the Senate.

NEW officials say an extension of the Oct. 1 date might save a lot of administrative confusion.

An "open enrollment" period of three months is supposed to begin Oct. 1 for elderly persons to join the voluntary doctor-bill insurance plan. But the period would have to be reopened if no extension were provided and the rate had to be changed because of congressional action.

Elvis Flattens Ex-employee

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Elvis Presley used his fists to flatten a former employee during an argument, according to the Shelby County Sheriff's office.

A sheriff's office report Monday indicated the 31-year-old millionaire entertainer decked Troy Ivy, 38, with one blow. Ivy denied he had gone down but said Presley hit him twice.

No arrests were made. The report said the incident occurred Sunday at the front gate of Presley's estate, Graceland, in suburban Whitehaven. Ivy was identified as a former yardman for Presley's father.

Planting of poplar trees is forbidden on streets of some cities because their roots go so deep that they often disrupt sewage and water systems.

Antimissile Money Being Deployed

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government already has enough money allotted to begin deployment of the $5 billion missile defense system outlined this week by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

But officials said the decision will probably add about $1 billion to the budget President Johnson will send to Congress next January for the fiscal year which begins July 1, 1968.

The Nike-X defense system is scheduled to be built over five years to ward off any low-scale nuclear attack by Red China in the 1970s.

For the current fiscal year, however, the big defense decision will have no effect on the budget which the administration is already under heavy pressure to cut.

Some members of Congress have demanded cuts in nondefense spending as the price for adoption of President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes.

Government sources estimate that up to $700 million is available to the Pentagon to begin the program during the current fiscal year.

In submitting his budget to Congress last January for this fiscal year, President Johnson reserved $375 million for possible production of Nike-X.

He said at the time, however, that no action would be taken immediately to deploy a missile defense and said discussions would be initiated with the Soviet Union on limiting missile deployment.

"In the event these discussions prove unsuccessful, Johnson said, 'we will reconsider our deployment decision.'

To provide for action that might be required when a decision is made, Johnson said, the budget called for $375 million for production of missiles. Officials said several hundred million more is available to the Pentagon from its research funds.

Middle East Object of UN Meet

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly's new Communist president called the 122 member states to embark today on a study aimed at finding a "lasting solution" to the Middle East problem.

Tall, silver-haired Corneliu Manescu, foreign minister of Romania, is the first Communist to be assembly president.

He was elected Tuesday in a secret ballot with 112 votes for him to 1 for Tanzanian Ambassador John W. S. Macecela.

The assembly's prime duty, said Manescu, 51, is "to concentrate its efforts upon a thorough study of this (the Middle East) problem that could lead to a lasting solution in keeping with Wednesday, September 20, 1967 the vital interests of the peoples of that region."

The dispute was handed to the assembly by the emergency session that met after the six-day June war between Israel and the Arabs but could agree on no solutions. The Middle East dilemma headed the list of 96 items on the proposed agenda for the 22nd session.

Other key issues were the problem of substituting U.N. for South African control in South-West Africa, the question of seating Communist China and the means of achieving disarmament.

A Big Four discussion on the Middle East is a possibility with the arrival in New York of foreign ministers from the Soviet Union, France, England and the United States.

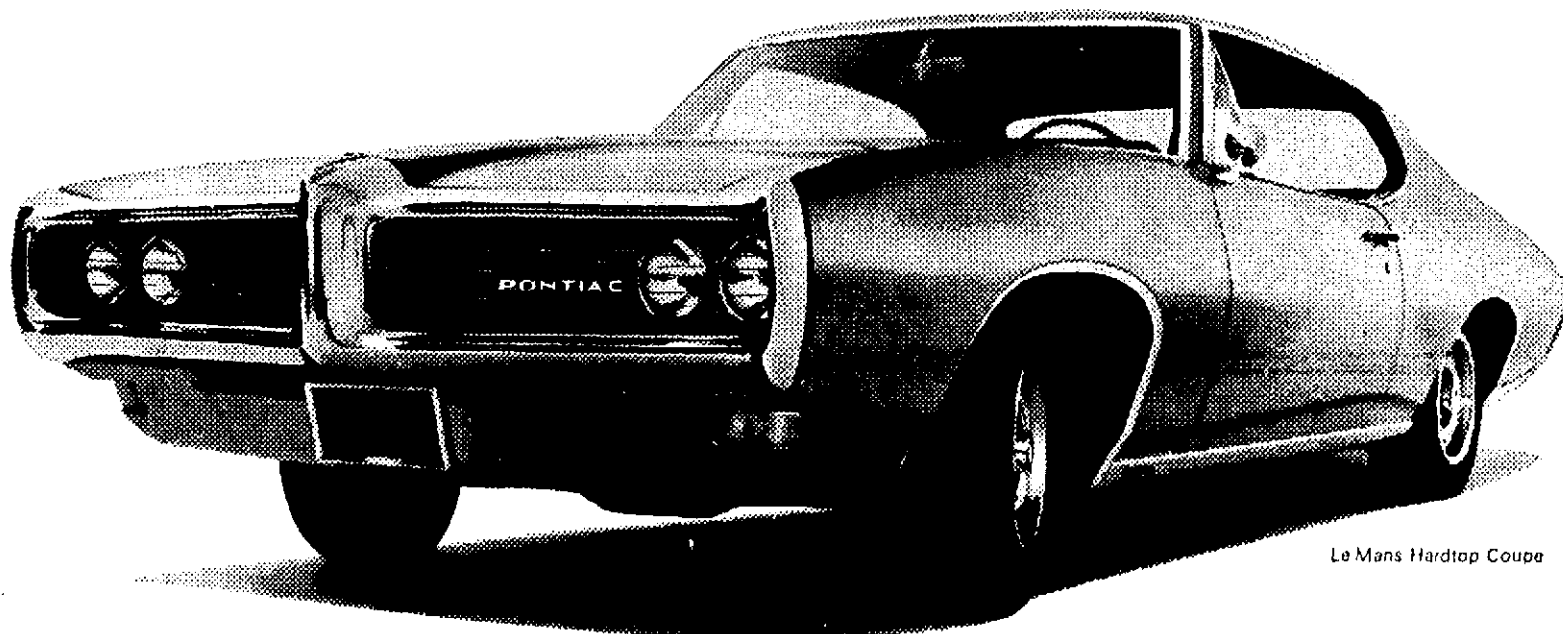

British Foreign Secretary George Brown arrives today and Secretary of State Dean Rusk is expected Sunday night. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is already in New York and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville is due tonight.

The Soviet Union, however, turned down a French proposal last spring, for a Big Four summit on the Middle East.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant suggested Tuesday that the Security Council hold a private meeting among foreign ministers at the assembly to seek a consensus on peace issues within U.N. competence.

Venezuela's population has increased more than 50 per cent since 1950 to about 7.5 million inhabitants, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.
